About Our School

St. Michael Anglo Indian School is a co-educational, day and residential English Medium School, situated in the outskirts of Mohanpur, Mahagama, St. Michael Anglo Indian School is an educational institute with a difference. Here, We make learning exciting and enjoyable helping the children discover their world in enjoyable ways nourishing them with values and discipline. The school is run by KERALA EDUCATIONAL SOCIETY. a registered educational, and non commercial, not for profit Trust consisting of committed educationists and social workers of high standing and repute.

Our School is often considered to be a "School with a Heart". Here , the structure of the school coupled with an encompassing social structure of society gives a "real window" to the values that STMAIS stands for. Social, cultural, religious and ethnic bonding with its true meaning is found here. The perfect mixture of conservativeness with modernity is the basis of our success. Humility and humbleness are the cornerstone of our school - be it our efficient office staff, our ever willing support staff or our mainstay-our very own teaching faculty headed by our Principal Biju Kavunkal.

Developmental work is an ongoing process and the ultimate beneficiaries will be the students. We have embarked on a new project and through this website we will bring to you the wonderful world of STMAIS– a world where we have happy teachers and happy young ladies.

At STMAIS it is our endeavour to provide value oriented learning opportunities that cultivate the mind, enrich the lives of our children and prepare them to meet the challenges of tomorrow. We strive to enable the child to grow and develop integrally without losing contact with his soul. We nurture the
